

THE ART OF THE STARTUP

Techpreneurs

College of Agriculture and Human Sciences
Cooperative Extension Program
Prairie View A&M University

What

If you have a budding business idea, app or tech product or services and looking to get started, then this workshop is for you!

Tech entrepreneurs are the true visionaries and smart risk takers who play a critical role in growing our economy, creating new jobs, innovating products and services across our state and nation. This year's workshop we will highlight and hear from today's innovative entrepreneurs on how they got their business from idea to market, protecting your ideas and much more.

Join us, the Community and Economic Development Unit of the Cooperative Extension Program for the 2nd Annual The Art of the Startup: Techpreneurs.

Topics that will be covered are:

- E-commerce for Online Markets
- Designing your own App
- Protecting your Idea
- Funding your Venture
- 3-D Printing
- Designing a website from scratch

Lunch and refreshments will be provided for those who register on Eventbrite.

Be inspired to start your tech business today.
